Ido Lewinsohn, the Head Winemaker of Barkan winery, graduated as a Master of Wine (MW) after completing all exams and thesis demands. He received the prestigious and most meaningful title in the world of wine- Master of Wine.

Ido is the second Israeli ever to hold this title and is one of less than 100 fellow MW winemaker's worldwide

Ido Lewinsohn, the Head Winemaker of Barkan winery, graduated as a Master of Wine (MW) after completing all exams and thesis demands. Ido is the second Israeli to hold this title and is one of 100 fellow winemakers worldwide. He joins the other 408 Master of Wine.

The Institute of Masters of Wine is an international organization founded in London in 1953, with the purpose to promote excellence, interaction, and learning of the field of Wine. Its members are all Masters of Wine, and the exams to become one are known and honored worldwide due to their high standards and precision.

All Masters of Wine are known by their deep understanding in all fields of wine. Among them: Jancis Robinson, the most important wine journalist and critic, wine critics Jasper Morris and Michal Broadbent. Also, to be named Serena Sutcliffe, Wine Curator for Sotheby's, and the most famous and influential winemakers, such as Olivier Humbrecht (Zind-Humbrecht, Alsace), Drew Noon (Noon, Australia), and Michael Brajkovich (Kumeu River, New Zealand).

BARKAN WINE CELLARS
MARKETING AND DISTRIBUTION LTD.
P.O.Box 159, M.P. Sorek 7684200, Hulda.
Tel: +972-8-944-7777 Fax: +972-8-9447788
winery@barkan-winery.co.il
www.barkan-winery.co.il

יקבי ברקן
שיווק והפצה בע"מ
ת.ד. 159, חולדה ד.נ. עמק שורק 7684200
טל: 08-9447777 פקס: 08-9447788
winery@barkan-winery.co.il
www.barkan-winery.co.il